

CLA170: Introductory Topics in Classical Literature

Selected readings from Greek and/or Roman literature, offered at the introductory level, with emphasis both on developing the skills of literary interpretation and on introducing students to Classical literature and the discipline of Classics. The course is open to all students, and can be counted toward the Classics minor. Topics will include, but not be limited to, "Ancient Epic: Heroes of Greece and Rome" and "Introduction to Classical Mythology."

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: World Languages

Semester Offered:

Spring

Area of Inquiry: Humanities: LIT