

FRE308: French Civilization

A study of the major influences on and expressions of French civilization in the different periods through the examination of works of art, key figures, social institutions, and political, intellectual, literary, and artistic movements. Readings explore the historical and cultural complexities of France and the Francophone countries.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

FRE230 or FRE235

Department: World Languages