

GER230: Intermediate German II

This course is designed to help students solidify and develop their speaking, listening, writing, and reading skills through review and study of structures and an increased emphasis on vocabulary building. Through readings of authentic German "texts," including a children's book and feature films, students will gain an overview of the political and cultural history of twentieth-century Germany.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

GER201 or equivalent.

Department: World Languages