

GSC101: Freshman Seminar

Freshman Seminar is a one-hour course designed for first-semester college students. The course affords students the opportunity to study and discuss topics important to college life and academic success and to learn and practice essential skills in a supportive small group atmosphere under the guidance of their faculty advisor. Students may earn one to seven credit hours in GSC classes toward graduation.

Credit Hour(s): 1

Department: General Studies Credit

Semester Offered:

Fall