

GSC170: Topics in Service Learning

This course will allow students the opportunity to work with a faculty member and College-approved community partner on a service project, and to thoughtfully reflect upon the connections between what students have learned in class and what they observe and experience through their project. The course is open to any student regardless of major, and the topic will vary each semester. One possibility is to take this class as part of an Alternative Offered in the spring Break experience. The course could be repeatable up to six credit hours. Students may earn one to seven credit hours in GSC classes toward graduation.
