

HIS333: Europe in Crisis 1871-1949

A survey of European history from the period of German unification to the beginning of the Cold War. Emphasis will be given to the challenges posed by nationalism and militarism; the two world wars; technological, economic, and social change; imperialism; the emergence of fascist, national socialist, and communist movements and governments; and the evolution of cultural modernism.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: History

Semester Offered:

Spring (odd)

Area of Inquiry: Humanities: HIS