

MAT203: Mathematics for Elementary Education I

A detailed development of the mathematics taught in elementary school using a problem-solving approach. Topics include numeration, proportional reasoning, number theory, and, for whole numbers, fractions, and decimals, number sense and standard and non-standard algorithms. For elementary education majors only.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

Sophomore standing.

Department: Mathematics, Physics, and Computer Science

Semester Offered:

Fall