

PSY460: Enhanced Internship

This course is designed to provide advanced psychology students with the opportunity to work in applied field placements in the community. The course also provides a foundation for professional and career development for entry-level positions in human service fields, as well as preparation for graduate school. Students will be given the opportunity to learn in diverse ways (e.g., exposure to special topics, issues relevant to the placement, different supervisory styles, etc.) through practical experience and guidance from the instructor and site supervisor.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

Consent of instructor.

Department: Psychology

Semester Offered:

Fall

Spring