

BUA310: Intermediate Accounting I

Review of the basic financial accounting process, the income statement, and the balance sheet. Topics covered in depth include accounting applications of time value of money and accounting for current assets, property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

BUA211.

Department: Business and Economics

Semester Offered:

Fall