

BUA363: International Finance

Financing corporate enterprise in a world business environment. Examines the theory of international financial adjustments, the functions of financial institutions, and the financing of trade. Evaluating foreign exchange markets, management of currency exposure, estimating country debt-servicing capacity and external debt financing problems.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

BUA335.

Department: Business and Economics

Semester Offered:

Spring (even)