

BUA452: Financial Analysis and Valuation

Financial Statement Analysis is a key technique used throughout the financial services industry. This course is a study of the tools and techniques used for the determination of the intrinsic value of a public corporation. Particular emphasis in the course will be given to: financial reporting mechanics and standards, assessing past and future financial performance, long-lived assets and long-term liabilities, and the assessment of financial reporting quality.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

BUA 335 and BUA 342.

Department: Business and Economics

Semester Offered:

Spring