

ART123: Rock Paper Scissors

This course investigates contemporary art history and current practicing artists while students take part in creative exercises and projects. There is an optional one-hour lab, which addresses the fundamental concepts of studio practices including but not limited to conceptual development, collaboration, installation, and technical direction. In this course, students will observe the work of others in the studio environment, explore a broad repertoire of media possibilities, and critically analyze works.

Credit Hour(s): 2

Department: Art

Area of Inquiry: Fine Arts: ART