

ART394: Critique Seminar

Recommended for Art majors and minors, this course provides students with the opportunity to pursue an individualized topic of interest in the area of art studio or art history. This course will consist of critiques for personal work, research and conceptual writing, individual meetings with faculty, portfolio development and a small group show. Critique Seminar serves as an opportunity for students to produce and present independent work in the context of a group with critical feedback and insights. This course may be repeated.
