

BUA210: Principles of Accounting I

This is a sequence course. It deals with the accounting policies, procedures, theories, and practices of merchandising and service concerns. Emphasis will be placed on the accounting cycle, balance sheet, income statement, partnerships, and the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Business and Economics

Semester Offered:

Fall

Spring