

EDU413: Elementary Classroom Management

This course assists candidates in developing a personalized classroom management program as an integral part of their overall teaching approach. Topics include developmental aspects of student behavior, theories relating to elementary classroom management, and practical approaches to successful classroom leadership. This course may be taken during the student teaching semester.

Credit Hour(s): 2

Department: Education

Semester Offered:

Fall

Spring