

FRE301: Francophone Cultures

This course will focus on the development of reading strategies. Through an exploration of a variety of modern and historical texts students will review complex grammar, build vocabulary, study complex sentence structure, and examine cultural questions pertaining to various parts of the Francophone world.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

FRE230

Department: World Languages

Semester Offered:

Fall (even)