

HIS321: History of Japan

This course will cover Japanese history from the Sengoku period to the Russo-Japanese War. While covering the political, institutional, religious, economic, and cultural history of Japan, particular attention will be paid to the significant influence of China, as well as Japanese social structure and reaction to the outside world.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Program: History