MAT115: Liberal Arts Mathematics

An introductory mathematics class with a focus on practical applications including but not limited to: money management, basic statistics, voting and social choice, and management science. Students with a grade of C or higher in MAT109 or MAT125 (or its equivalent) may not subsequently take this course for credit. Not applicable to a major or minor in Mathematics.

Credit Hour(s): 3
Department: Mathematics, Physics, and Computer Science
Semester Offered:
Fall
Spring