

MUS126: Music History and Styles

A study of the stylistic characteristics, major composers, and works from the Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, and Romantic eras, as well as an exploration of the 20th and 21st century American jazz/blues music and musicians.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

MUS 111

Department: Performing Arts

Semester Offered:

Spring (odd)

Area of Inquiry: Fine Arts: MUS