

PHI307: History of Philosophy II

Survey of the development of Western philosophical thought within its cultural contexts from the Renaissance through the eighteenth century. Exploration of issues foundational to contemporary philosophy, theology, and the sciences.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

Foundations 111 or one course in philosophy or permission of the instructor.

Program: Philosophy

Semester Offered:

Fall