

PHI335: Theories of Economic Justice

Introduction to the moral and political issues raised by the facts of absolute poverty and economic inequality in both international and domestic contexts. Contemporary theories of beneficence and distributive justice will be explored.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Philosophy

Semester Offered:

Spring (even)

Area of Inquiry: Humanities: PHI