

PHI395: Seminar on Vocation

This course introduces the idea of vocation through readings and discussions. The readings include scripture, biography, theology, and philosophical texts. The purpose of the course is to develop the student's understanding of vocation as a reflective theme and to have access to rich sources for exploring the idea of vocation.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

one course in Philosophy.

Program: Philosophy

Semester Offered:

Spring