

REL215: Biblical Storytelling

A biblical, historical, and theological study of the forms of address employed by the church to share the Gospel. Particular attention will be given to the Gospel as narrative and biblical storytelling in the twenty-first century. Students will engage in practical projects and assignments that will help develop best practices and methods of biblical storytelling.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Department: Religion

Semester Offered:

Spring (odd)