

SPA357: Business Spanish or Professional Communication in Spanish

A study of vocabulary and cultural practices in international business, the travel industry, and legal matters in Spanish-speaking countries. The course teaches practical skills in written and oral professional situations, through interviews, phone conversations, writing assignments and presentations.

Credit Hour(s): 3

Prerequisites:

SPA 230, or permission of instructor.

Department: World Languages

Semester Offered:

Spring (even)